

Section 3.2 – The said officers shall be elected at the last regular meeting held prior to the TML Annual Meeting and shall serve for a term of two years. The Director shall be elected at the last regular meeting prior to the Annual Meeting of even-numbered years and shall serve a term of two years. Only City officials of member cities shall serve as officers.

Section 3.3 – Prior to the annual meeting of every even-numbered year, the President shall appoint a nominating committee. The nominating committee shall present the names of the prospective officers at the annual meeting. Each existing officer will automatically be considered as a nominee for the succeeding office for the next term. The President will become the nominee for Director; the Vice President becomes the nominee for President, and the office of Vice President will be open for election. Any officer serving in the capacity of the 2nd Vice President prior to the adoption of these revised bylaws may be nominated for the Vice President position. Other nominations may be made from the floor for each office. The function of Secretary-Treasurer shall be discharged by the Houston-Galveston Area Council, or the designee of the newly-elected President.

Section 3.4 – A vacancy in the office of the President shall be filled for the unexpired term by the succession of the Vice President to that office. A vacancy in the office of the Vice President shall be filled for the unexpired term by election of a member to that office. In the event of a vacancy in the office of the Director, the President shall become a member of the TML Board of Directors and shall hold such office until the adjournment of the next Annual Conference. In the event of a vacancy in any other office, such vacancy shall be filled by election at the next regular meeting. The fact that such a vacancy will be filled shall be included in the notice of such meeting.

Section 3.5 – The term of office of all newly elected officers shall commence immediately upon election.

ARTICLE 4.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 4.1 – It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings. The President shall see that a time and place are arranged for all meetings, a program prepared, and shall appoint all standing and special committees.

Section 4.2 – It shall be the duty of the Vice President to act in place of the President when the President is unable to act and to assist in the prosecution of the duties of that office.

Section 4.3 – It shall be the duty of the Vice President to assist the President in the prosecution of their duties.
